Shared Legacies Student Action Grants

Watch the film. Lead the conversation. Earn funding to bring it to others.

Spill the Honey will select 10 high school educators to turn the award-winning documentary Shared Legacies: The African American-Jewish Civil Rights Alliance into a family and/or community screening.

WHAT THE TEAM LEADER WILL DO

- Build your team. Gather high school student leaders or utilize an existing high school class.
- Watch and discuss. View Shared Legacies (40-minute classroom version) together and explore how Black and Jewish leaders worked across differences during the Civil Rights Movement.
- Submit your event. Finalize your plans to host a family and/or community future screening and student-led/educator supported conversation.
- Share the impact. Submit a brief event recap, attendance count, and participant feedback.

WHAT SELECTED TEAMS RECEIVE

- $500 family or community screening grant for educator and program. Up to 20% may be allocated for leader stipend(s).
- Film and planning resources to help your team move from idea to action.
- Free technical assistance from Spill the Honey for event design, outreach, facilitation, and implementation.
- A national platform to elevate youth leadership and strengthen Black-Jewish understanding.

Watch the trailer and learn more spillthehoney.com/sharedlegacies.
To receive a screening link to the classroom documentary contact Drschindler@spillthehoney.com.

Who Should Apply

High school educators who are ready to lead. We welcome applications from educators connected with public, private, and charter schools. Each team must have a school or nonprofit partner able to receive and manage the grant funds. No prior event-planning experience is required.

Proposed 2026–2027 School Year Timeline

OCT 1–OCT 30	NOV–DEC	JAN–FEB	FEB–MAY
Apply	Teams selected, orientation, and film viewing with students	Develop and submit event plan	Host screening and report results

How Teams Will Be Selected

Keep the application short and specific. Strong applications will demonstrate student ownership, a realistic and thoughtful initial plan, relevance to the local community, and a commitment to fostering constructive dialogue across differences.

Seventy-five percent (75%) percent of the funding will be sent upon notification and acceptance of the award. The remaining twenty-five (25%) will be sent after we receive your write up on the impact, including a brief event recap, attendance count, and participant feedback based on a very brief pre- and post-survey. Up to 20% of the budget may be allocated for leader stipend(s).

Ready to turn a powerful film into local action?

Apply by October 30, 2026 | Application: https://tinyurl.com/2h64j8x5

Questions: Cindy@Spillthehoney.org • spillthehoney.com